RIO DE JANEIRO

WELCOME MESSAGE

Dear Athletes, Officials, and Friends of Triathlon,

It is with immense pride and joy that I welcome you all to the 2026 World Triathlon Cup, taking place at the iconic Copacabana Beach in Rio de Janeiro on August 2nd, 2026.

This event represents a significant milestone for our confederation and for Brazil. We are honored to once again open the doors of Copacabana—the same legendary waters that hosted the triathlon events during the unforgettable 2016 Olympic Games—to the world's finest triathletes and international triathlon community.

Ten years have passed since the world witnessed extraordinary performances on this very beach during our Olympic Games. Today, we stand here with the same enthusiasm, the same passion, and the same commitment to delivering an exceptional competition. It is a profound source of satisfaction to bring this world-class event back to the place where Olympic dreams were realized and records were shattered.

The choice of Copacabana is no coincidence. It is a tribute to the legacy of 2016, a celebration of our sporting heritage, and a demonstration of Brazil's continued dedication to triathlon excellence. This beach, with its natural beauty and its place in Olympic history, provides the perfect stage for athletes to showcase their talents and for our sport to inspire millions worldwide.

We invite you to experience the warmth, energy, and passion of Rio de Janeiro. We promise you a competition of the highest standards, organized with dedication and pride. Together, let us create another chapter of glory in this historic venue.

Welcome to the 2026 World Triathlon Cup. Welcome to Copacabana. Welcome to Brazil.

RIO DE JANEIRO AIRPORTS

Galeão International Airport (GIG) – Rio de Janeiro/Galeão – Antonio Carlos Jobim International Airport

Galeão International Airport is Rio de Janeiro's main international gateway and one of the largest airports in South America. It is located on Governador Island, approximately 20 km from Copacabana Beach and about 18 km from the city centre. Travel time from Galeão to Copacabana varies from 30 to 60 minutes depending on traffic conditions.

The airport is served by two terminals (Terminal 1 and Terminal 2) and handles the majority of international and long-haul flights to and from Brazil. International athletes arriving from outside Brazil will most likely arrive at this airport.

Transportation options from Galeão to Copacabana include:

- Official LOC transfer service (see Airport Transfers section)
- Taxi / Rideshare apps (Uber, 99): approximately BRL 80–150 depending on traffic
- Bus services available via the Alô Rio bus corridor

Airport website: www.riogaleao.com

Santos Dumont Airport (SDU)

Santos Dumont Airport is a domestic airport located in the heart of Rio de Janeiro, near the city centre, approximately 15 km from Copacabana Beach. It mainly operates domestic flights within Brazil and serves as a convenient option for athletes travelling from other Brazilian cities.

Travel time from Santos Dumont to Copacabana is approximately 30–45 minutes depending on traffic.

Transportation options from Santos Dumont to Copacabana include:

- Taxi / Rideshare apps (Uber, 99): approximately BRL 50–90 depending on traffic
- Bus and metro connections available

Airport website: www.infraero.gov.br

General Travel Tips

- Always carry your accreditation card and a valid photo ID when travelling to and from the venue.
- Rio de Janeiro has a tropical climate. In August, temperatures typically range from 18°C to 26°C. Light layers are recommended for early morning race activities.
- Currency: Brazilian Real (BRL). ATMs are widely available at both airports.
- For emergencies, dial 190 (Police), 192 (SAMU – Medical Emergency), or 193 (Fire Brigade).
- Official LOC transport is available only from Galeão International Airport (GIG). See the Airport Transfers section for registration details.

VENUE INFORMATION

World Cup Venue and Headquarters

The Triathlon Arena is located on Avenida Atlântica, at the central median at height 3806, between Francisco Sá and Souza Lima streets, Copacabana, Rio de Janeiro.

Copacabana Beach is one of the most famous urban beaches in the world and carries a special place in triathlon history, having hosted the triathlon events during the 2016 Olympic Games. The venue provides an exceptional backdrop for elite competition, with the swim, bike, and run courses all accessible from the central transition area.

Athletes' Lounge

Facilities including athletes' lounge and toilets are provided to the athletes at the finish area. Sealed bottles of water and fruit will be offered to athletes before and after the race in the athletes' lounge.

COURSE INFORMATION

SWIM COURSE - 750m

The race begins with a beach start. Athletes will enter the water and complete a single counterclockwise lap of 750 metres. The course is marked with buoys and the exit is at the same point as the entry, with athletes running into the transition area.

Average water temperature in Copacabana during August is typically between 22°C and 24°C (72°F – 75°F), making the swim comfortable for elite athletes without a wetsuit. Water temperature will be confirmed and communicated at the race briefing.

RACE BRIEFING

The Elite Athletes' Briefing will be held on Saturday, August 1st, 2026 at 16:00 (local time). The venue will be confirmed and communicated closer to race week (TBC).

The briefing is mandatory for all elite athletes, as important competition and logistical information will be shared. Due to limited space at the venue, attendance will be restricted to athletes plus one (1) additional support person per team.

Race Package Distribution:

The distribution of race packs will take place after the Elite Athletes' Briefing at the same venue. All elite athletes must pick up their own race kit, which will be handed out by World Triathlon Officials following the briefing.

Credentials Distribution:

Accreditation cards and credentials for athletes, coaches, and team officials will be distributed at the briefing. Only accredited persons will be allowed to access specific competition venue areas.

SUSTAINABILITY

The Brazilian Triathlon Confederation's Commitment to Sustainability

The Brazilian Triathlon Confederation (CBTri) is deeply committed to promoting sustainable practices in all sporting events under its organization. The 2026 World Triathlon Cup Rio de Janeiro represents an important opportunity to demonstrate that high-performance sport and environmental responsibility can go hand in hand.

Copacabana Beach is not only an iconic sporting venue — it is a natural treasure. Preserving its beauty and ecological integrity for future generations is a shared responsibility. CBTri, in partnership with the Local Organising Committee, has committed to reducing the event's environmental footprint through responsible planning, waste reduction strategies, and the promotion of sustainable behaviour throughout the event.

However, achieving meaningful sustainability outcomes requires the active participation and cooperation of every individual involved in the event. Athletes, coaches, and team members play a crucial role in making this event a model of environmental responsibility.

How You Can Contribute

Reduce Plastic Use: Bring your own reusable water bottle where possible. Avoid single-use plastics throughout your stay in Rio de Janeiro.

Travel Sustainably: Use the official LOC transfer service rather than individual taxis where possible. When exploring the city, consider walking, cycling, or using public transport.

Respect the Environment: Copacabana Beach and its surrounding waters are part of a unique coastal ecosystem. Please treat all natural areas with care and respect during your time in Rio de Janeiro.

Be a Role Model: As elite athletes and ambassadors of sport, your actions have influence. We encourage you to share sustainable behaviours with your teams, supporters, and followers.

"Be part of the race. Be part of the change."

Together, through small but meaningful actions, we can ensure that the 2026 World Triathlon Cup Rio de Janeiro leaves a positive legacy not only in sport, but also for the environment and community of Rio de Janeiro.
